On 11/19/75, I departed from the Firemens Fund Forum after holding our annual law enforcement conference. I was proceeding south on Masonic Avenue and at approximately 12:49 PM, my car was struck from the right rear. I was proceeding at approximately 15 miles per hour on Masonic as there was heavy traffic in front of me. I immediately turned left on McAllister Street and stopped. As I got out of the car, I observed a Renault, California license [redacted] that had pulled away from the curb on Masonic Avenue and had hit the right rear of my car. I went up to the vehicle and the young woman driving the car immediately said she was sorry, that she had not looked when she pulled away from the curb to enter the traffic lane. She indicated she was not hurt in any way and the only damage to her car appeared to be some paint from the Bureau car on the left front bumper.

As I got out of the car, I observed a Renault, California license [redacted] that had pulled away from the curb on Masonic Avenue and had hit the right rear of my car. I went up to the vehicle and the young woman driving the car immediately said she was sorry, that she had not looked when she pulled away from the curb to enter the traffic lane. She indicated she was not hurt in any way and the only damage to her car appeared to be some paint from the Bureau car on the left front bumper.

I immediately radioed the office and Agents from C-3 responded. There was a SFPD car in the gas station at the corner of McAllister and Masonic and a report was made to them.

Lived there and watched you and your pink checked school boys drive the streets in hoods. Dear Mr. Hearst:

This office has reviewed scores of letters from [redacted] addressed either to yourself, [redacted] of the "San Francisco Examiner", or to your daughter, Patricia Hearst. The letters are often lengthy, rambling, and for the most part incoherent. With one exception, they apparently contain no threats.

The last letter received by your office and apparently mailed in San Francisco on November 1, 1975, contained a paragraph to the effect that [redacted] was going to attempt to steal a .38 and shoot someone.

This letter along with a photograph of [redacted] his last known address and description, have been furnished to the San Francisco Police Department.

Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Chief:

Enclosed is an envelope and letter addressed to Randolph Apperson Hearst, and a one-page letter therein signed by [REDACTED]. There is also enclosed a photograph of the driver's license of [REDACTED].

On October 27, 1975, J. Albert Johnson, counsel for Patricia Hearst, forwarded some 17 letters and cards that had been mailed to Patty Hearst by [REDACTED]. In addition, this office was in receipt of scores of letters written to Randolph Hearst by [REDACTED]. A review of these letters reflected that although they were rambling, sometimes incoherent, they did not contain a threat.

On October 29, 1975, [REDACTED] addressed a letter to me which might be interpreted as a threat, an assault on one of the FBI Agents. The matter has been discussed with the United States Attorney, who declined prosecution.

On November 4, 1975, this office was in receipt of the letter enclosed to you. You will note that in the last paragraph [REDACTED] states, "I think I'll go steal a .38, then hang around the Federal Building and shoot the first yellow belly I see. Then ask him if he wants to talk. In previous letters [REDACTED] has indicated some antipathy to Orientals, particularly the Japanese."

Dear Mr. Browning,

You will recall that the above-captioned individual was previously considered for federal prosecution under the Extortion Statutes but process against him was dismissed after he was adjudged incompetent in San Mateo County in March, 1976, and thereafter committed to the Napa State Mental Hospital.

Enclosed are two copies of a report of interview covering the receipt of a letter by me from [REDACTED] postmarked September 30, 1976 at San Francisco, California..

On October 4, 1976, Assistant United States Attorney F. Steele Langford was advised of the receipt of this letter. Mr. Langford stated that he did not contemplate federal prosecution in the matter and desired no investigation but requested your office be furnished a copy of the letter in order that it could be furnished to the proper local authorities.

Salutations Fuck Up,

You'll lose your job within the next month. And before I kill you with the aid of my Allies I'll dig the information I need out of you to finish my list.

You have two choices at this point as my power grows to be overwhelming. Leave the country. Kill me (which has become impossible). Or DIE.

Since you won't run and you can't kill me, then you'll have to die. Won't you?

Yours Sincerely,

Now let me tell you how they will be tortured. First they will have one eye poked out. Then they will have their dick completely cut off: nuts and hot dog too. Then, they will be placed in a prison of faggots for four years. The last ~~the~~ year (if they reach it) they will be tortured slowly to death.

You obviously don't know who you've been dealing with.

WEATHER UNDERGROUND

At approximately 2:09 a.m., 10/25/76, SA [REDACTED] on complaint duty, received an anonymous telephone call from an individual describing himself as a member of the Weather Underground, stating that he had a message to relate to Mr. BATES. The caller sounded like a white male, possibly in his late 20's or older. He spoke in a staccato, slightly effeminate voice. Background noises such as bus or truck traffic and a sound similar to the opening and closing of a telephone booth door, indicated that the call came from a pay phone located near a highway or bus terminal.

The caller said that, "This week we're going to do something to Mr. BATES." When SA [REDACTED] asked what the caller intended to do, the caller stated that they intended to "tie him up and set his balls on fire".

SA [REDACTED] inquired as to why the Weather Underground plotted such an excruciating fate for Mr. BATES, and the caller indicated that BATES had done something to them which was unforgivable.

The caller would not, at first, disclose precisely what SAC BATES had done, but after several inquiries by SA [REDACTED], stated that BATES, or people acting for him, had broken "into our house looking for our arsenal which was hidden far away from the house he broke into".

The caller would not specify where or when this action by the FBI took place and would not confirm that the alleged raid took place in the Bay Area.

The caller terminated the conversation, stating that he knew how long it took to trace the call and called back moments later, stating that they "know where Mr. BATES lives". The caller also stated that, "We have .44's, Thompsons and grenades."

In an attempt to ascertain the legitimacy of the threat, SA [] asked the caller to give him SAC BATES' address. Despite several similar requests, the caller declined to do so, indicating repeatedly, however, that, "We know where Mr. BATES lives". The caller indicated that they had paid $600 for BATES' address.
